

This 1740 Philadelphia rowhouse is restored to the year 1777, the year when tradition tells us Betsy Ross created the first American flag at the request of the First Continental Congress. The Betsy Ross House commemorates both the legendary event and the historical Betsy Ross.

We are dedicated to continuing to share the story of the first Stars & Stripes, a patriotic tale that has become a colorful thread in the complex tapestry of American history. We are just as committed to preserving the memory of Betsy Ross, an industrial, entrepreneurial and patriotic working wife, mother and business owner. The Betsy Ross House is unique as an historic site dedicated to telling the story of the 18th century middle-class woman.

In 1898, a group of patriotic citizens joined forces to establish The American Flag House & Betsy Ross Memorial to raise the money to restore this house and insure Betsy Ross' place in history. Since then, the Betsy Ross

House has relied on public support to continue to maintain the site and bring the highest quality of programming to our visitors.

The Betsy Ross House is located in the heart of Historic Philadelphia, at 239 Arch Street, just blocks from Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell.
